AIRGUN CYLINDERS

5-15-14

Compressed and CO2 air cylinders used in Olympic-style air rifles and air pistols are manufactured to specific quality standards as established by the country of origin and/or additional regulating agencies.

In accordance with ISSF rules, air cylinders used in USA Shooting events and activities are considered expired if more than ten years old as determined by the manufacturer's date stamp on the cylinder

Cylinders or airguns with internal cylinders not readily visible may be used for ten years as determined by the cylinder date stamp or airgun/cylinder purchase documentation.
